Welcome

Welcome, and thank you for choosing Mr James Maths Tuition to help with your studies. Mr James Maths Tuition currently offers both face-to-face and online tuition; allowing you as the student to do what is best for you, with the support from flexible tutors. I hope that you find this guide useful, and that it answers all your questions.

My name is Brad James, and I am the Director of Mr James Maths Tuition, founded in 2017. I have over 7 years teaching experience in mathematics, both as a secondary school teacher of mathematics, and personal tutor. Growing from strength to strength, I have been grateful to have had the opportunity to work with so many amazing students in that time.

I have a very high track record of helping students achieve the grades that they need to go into further education, whether this be college, sixth form or university.

Face to face and online tuition

Mr James Maths Tuition offer both online and face to face tuition sessions. If a face to face session has been booked, and the student would like an online session one week instead, they will need to provide their tutor with at least 24 hours notice so that this can be changed, and vice versa.

Face to Face sessions will take place at the students registered address, or a mutually convenient place for both the student and the tutor. (This would need to be agreed in advance of the session taking place). If the student is under 16 years of age, a parent would need to be present during the session.

Online sessions require the use of a device which is compatible with Microsoft Teams. Although students tend to prefer to use their mobile phone, a laptop or table would be more convenient for the sessions due to the need for screen sharing. In addition to this, students will also need access to a webcam and microphone to all for communication to take place during the session. Sessions will only be conducted using the students registered Teams account.
